By the Court

Hon'ble B.S. Verma, J.

Heard Smt. Pushpa Joshi learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. The learned counsel for the applicant has contended that there is only presumption of abetment against the applicant/accused. The learned counsel for the applicant has further contended that there was no allegation against the applicant/accused prior to the incident. Considering the facts, totality and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the C.J.M. concerned.
